Promises

As you listen to the music, think about these questions

What is the importance of making promises.

How are some promises more difficult to keep than others?

Why is the link between the promise and the actions following the promise important?

Our Big Question - Why make promises?

When the music stops we will share our thoughts by passing the holding cross.

Record below what you think is important and you want to hold on to from our PROMISES topic. It may be a picture, a prayer or some words from Scripture.
