THE INITIAL MEETING OF THE PANEL

Before the initial meeting

1. The Diocesan Department for Education (0191 2433313) is contacted to arrange for a Diocesan recruitment adviser to be appointed and the date of the initial meeting at which the Diocesan recruitment adviser will be present.
2. An initial phone call takes place between the panel chair and the Diocesan recruitment adviser.
3. The agenda and supporting papers are distributed before the meeting.
4. The following advisers are invited to the initial meeting and present throughout the process:
 - Diocesan adviser appointed by the Diocese
 - Professional adviser appointed by the panel
 - HR adviser appointed by the panel
 - Priest with pastoral responsibility

The remainder of these notes should be read in conjunction with the agenda.

Role of the Advisers

The Diocesan adviser is the Bishop's representative to ensure that the process is carried out in line with the Bishop's expectations. The professional adviser is there to offer their professional assessment of candidates and their relative strengths. The professional adviser may be the CEO, Deputy CEO, Standards Officer or a serving Headteacher from that Trust. The HR adviser's role is to advise the panel on process, ensuring best practice and compliance with fair employment legislation.

Managing the Meeting

An appropriate amount of time should be allocated for the initial meeting. The meeting must be minuted. For appointments within the Trust more than one vacancy may be considered at the initial meeting.

Agenda Items

Agenda item 4: Declaration of interest

Declaration of interest should be shared and recorded. If a member of staff who is serving as a governor could be a potential permanent or acting candidate in the same school, then this should be declared and the person should remove themselves from the process.

If an interest is declared but the person does not feel that it debars them from taking part in the shortlisting/appointment process then the recruitment adviser must investigate this further and then advise the panel accordingly.

Agenda item 5: Confirmation of vacant post

The panel confirms the vacancy and the receipt of formal resignation of outgoing post holder.

Agenda item 6: Procedural matters to note

- a. Confirmation of membership of the recruitment panel. Members of the panel not at the initial meeting may be present at the rest of the recruitment process. The panel should be present for the whole recruitment process from shortlisting to interview and therefore must commit to that. An exception for this could be the priest with pastoral responsibility who may, for pastoral reasons, not be able to be present for the whole process.
- b. References should be sought after the shortlisting has taken place. They should not be copied and circulated to the panel. They should be made available to the panel on the interview day.
- c. At least one member of the interview panel should have undergone the safer recruitment training in the last three years.
- d. The panel should be familiar with and have formally adopted the Diocesan Equal Opportunities Statement. The panel should be reminded that whilst the process of appointment is open, details of individual applicants are confidential and should not be discussed outside the meeting.

Agenda item 7: Consideration of vacancy

- a. Job descriptions. The generic Diocesan job descriptions are to be adopted. They cover all the key aspects of the roles and are acceptable to the professional associations. The job descriptions can be tailored to meet the school's specific requirements.
- b. Person specification. It is recommended that the Diocesan pro formas are used.
- c. Remuneration advice. The panel sets a salary for the post. The advisers will offer guidance on the appropriate salary where relevant. Reference should be made to the most recent School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document. At this stage the panel might also consider whether they would be willing to contribute to relocation expenses.
- d. Advertisement checklist. There is an advertisement checklist which the panel may find helpful (see appendix).
- e. Application pack checklist. There is an application pack checklist which the panel may find helpful (see appendix).
- f. Date for advertisement/closing date for applications. This should allow time for candidates to obtain information from the school and complete and return their application. Ideally this should span two weekends.
- g. Date for circulation of applications and shortlisting working sheet. Arrangements for circulating applications should be made. Confidentiality must be stressed. A shortlisting pro forma per applicant should be completed by each member of the panel.
- h. Date of shortlisting meeting. The date for the shortlisting meeting should take account of the time needed for applications to be circulated to the panel.
- i. Interview date. Time must be allowed between shortlisting and the interview date to allow for references to be requested and received. A period of two weeks between the closing date and the shortlisting meeting is therefore recommended.
- j. Responsibilities. There should be clear arrangements and allocation of responsibilities for placing the advertisement. Wherever possible it is recommended that applications are returned to the chair of the panel.

SAFER RECRUITMENT PRACTICE

The Diocese and the panel are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young persons and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

It is essential that panels adopt recruitment procedures that help deter, reject or identify people who might pose a risk or abuse children. Further information about the responsibilities placed on schools when carrying out recruitment procedures can be found in the DfE statutory guidance Keeping Children Safe in Education.

The panel will therefore ensure that a statement regarding safer recruitment will be included in any recruitment documentation.

Safer Recruitment Training

For maintained schools it is a statutory requirement for at least one member of the selection panel to have completed safer recruitment training. The CES recommends that this training is refreshed every 3 years. Whilst not a statutory requirement in academies, this is considered best practice and is an expectation of the Diocese. Panels should also consider what general recruitment training members of the panel might need.

DIOCESAN MODEL STATEMENT ON EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES IN EMPLOYMENT IN CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

The Diocesan Department for Education for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle has agreed the following model statement on equal opportunities in employment, for recommendation to boards.

The panel is committed to ensuring that matters concerning appointments, including promotions, are dealt with in a fair and just manner. The panel believe that the principle of equal opportunity in selection is consistent with social justice and good personnel practice. This is in keeping with our Catholic aim to recognise the dignity and worth of all who work or apply to work in our organisations.

Our selection processes aim to select the best applicant assessed against the criteria for the post. We are subject to the law of the land and acknowledge our commitment to conducting our affairs in accordance with the law. The panel do not discriminate on grounds of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex, or sexual orientation

The Roman Catholic community maintains schools which have, as part of their character, a duty to provide Religious Education and a requirement that those schools be conducted in accordance with the rites, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic faith. It would therefore be clear that where applicants are equal in qualifications and experience in the context of selection criteria for a post that a Roman Catholic applicant would have an advantage over an applicant not of the Roman Catholic faith in being able to contribute to the mission of the Church in Catholic education. The posts of executive headteacher, headteacher, deputy headteacher, head of religious education and chaplain are reserved for practising Catholics.

In fulfilling the objectives of Catholic schools, the panel have regard to matters which are particularly significant in the light of the sacramental teachings of the Church. Catholic teachers by their example and practice are witnesses to the Gospels and to the Church's teachings. The panel would therefore, in line with its responsibilities, reserve the right to take account of circumstances which were genuinely within a person's control and which might include marital status, avowed personal conviction, belief or conduct.

JOB DESCRIPTIONS AND PERSON SPECIFICATIONS

What are these?

The person specification comprises a list of the skills, qualities and experience that the panel requires of the person to be appointed. Some requirements will be deemed essential (e.g. that the person appointed should be a practising Catholic). Others will be judged desirable but not essential. These can be used to differentiate between applicants who are equal in terms of the essentials.

How are the criteria determined?

The criteria for the person specification are determined by the panel. The process of agreeing the criteria gives the panel the opportunity to consider and determine what kind of person they are looking to appoint.

The framework offers a starting point for discussion and has been prepopulated. Many criteria in the person specification are suggested as essential for all schools. Others will be judged essential by the panel or will need discussing, modifying or possibly rejecting as inappropriate to the school's needs.

How do they help?

The final document helps potential applicants to decide if they are eligible for the post. More importantly, it enables the panel to ensure their appointment process complies with the legislation on equal opportunities in employment because once the person specification has been determined, it is essential to focus on these when shortlisting and interviewing. When the panel reaches the point of deciding on the person to be appointed, it must be clearly on the basis of the evidence gained as to who represents the best fit against the person specification. No other factors (such as, for example, information gained informally or outside the declared process) should be considered. If challenged, the panel should be able to show that the best applicant assessed against the person specification has been offered the post.

The person specification is sent to prospective applicants together with the application form and information about the school. Because the framework is a working document, it is recommended that criteria should be transferred to a new document and listed under the headings on the framework, divided into 'essential' and 'desirable'.

How will the panel know whether a candidate meets the criteria of the person specification?

It is not possible to tell at the shortlisting stage whether an applicant meets all of the essential criteria. There will be evidence for some straightforward criteria (e.g. qualified teacher status) in the application and applicants' supporting statements should provide at least an indication of further evidence. However, most criteria will be tested at the interview stage by tasks and questions designed to give applicants the opportunity to demonstrate how fully they meet the criteria. Applicants who clearly do not meet one or more of the essential criteria should be ruled out at the shortlisting stage and the reason for this recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

REMUNERATION ADVICE

Setting an appropriate salary for the role will help to attract the right candidate and to reflect the level of challenge in the role being recruited.

For CEO and Deputy CEO posts, Diocesan guidance is available.

For Headteacher, Deputy Headteacher and leaders of Religious Education, the School Teacher's Pay and Conditions document (STPC) provides the statutory framework for teachers' pay.

At present there is no national or Diocesan scale for School Chaplains.

All academies in the Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle are committed to adhering to the STPC for teaching staff.

AGENDA FOR THE SHORTLISTING MEETING

1. Opening Prayer
2. Apologies for absence
3. Declaration of interest
4. Consideration of applications against criteria for vacant post(s)
5. Procedural matters
 - a) Agreement of shortlist and decision to proceed to interview
 - b) References
 - c) Feedback to applicants not shortlisted
 - d) Confirmation of selection process
 - e) Interview day activities
 - f) Responsibility for organising interview day(s)
 - g) Invitation to interview – identity and qualification checks
6. Close of meeting

SHORTLISTING MEETING

Before the meeting

An appropriate amount of time should be allocated to the meeting. The agenda and applications should be circulated prior to the meeting together with the criteria for appointment and copies of the shortlist working sheet for each candidate.

Agenda Items

Agenda item 3: Declaration of interest

Before shortlisting begins, the list of applicants should be checked to ensure that there is/are no conflict(s) of interest. A conflict of interest arises where the panel member has (or has had) a personal or working relationship with an applicant, or is related to, or has prior knowledge of the applicant outside of the work environment which could in any way affect the decision they make. It is a panel member's responsibility to declare any conflict of interest at any stage during the recruitment process to the chair. The chair will seek advice from the advisers.

The above paragraph also applies to any adviser involved in the appointment process.

Agenda item 4: Consideration of applications against criteria for vacant post(s)

The panel should decide after consideration of each application whether the candidate should be called for interview or rejected because they do not meet one of the essential criteria.

Agenda item 5: Procedural matters

- a) Agreement of shortlist and decision to proceed to interview. The panel decides whether they have a sufficiently strong shortlist to proceed to interview. If the panel is unable to shortlist or wishes to re-advertise to attract a greater field, then in discussion with the Diocesan recruitment adviser, they may decide to re-advertise. All decisions should be minuted. A record of the reasons why individual candidates have not been shortlisted should be retained for six months after the interview as it can be called in for scrutiny by a tribunal.
- b) References. References are requested for those candidates who have been shortlisted. In line with the CES guidance, they are used 'to obtain objective and factual information to support appointment decisions'. Only formal written references should be used. It is important to be clear about the information that is required in a reference. It is helpful if professional references specifically address the criteria for appointment. The use of a pro forma and standard letter requesting references is recommended as a means of obtaining precisely the information that is required and of ensuring that the same information is gained about each candidate. References allow the panel to:
 - To comply with safer recruitment requirements.
 - To ensure that the essential requirement of 'practising Catholic' is evidenced with a supportive priest reference.

- To ensure that the applicant is supported professionally with a positive recommendation from their current employer or headteacher.

References, as with application forms and other related materials, are strictly confidential and should not be distributed outside of those involved in the appointment process. Care should be taken over their storage and disposal during and after the process. Any queries regarding references should be discussed with the recruitment adviser.

- c) Feedback to applicants not shortlisted. It is important to agree who will provide quality feedback and the reason why the applicant was unsuccessful. This can be delegated to the adviser.
- d) Confirmation of selection process. The selection process can take between one to two days depending on the number shortlisted. It is usual to take all candidates through the whole process. This allows the panel to develop as fully an informed view as possible as well as being fair to the candidates. The venue, start time and the outline timetable should be decided on. Responsibility for detailed scheduling should be agreed. It is useful to refer sample timetables for interview days.
- e) Interview day activities. A variety of activities can be used for the selection process. Task should be chosen to reflect the post advertised.

Examples include:

- Tour of the school
 - Liturgical prayer
 - Data task/presentation
 - Presentations may be given in advance or on the interview day.
 - Taught lesson
 - Student panel
 - Opportunity to meet staff/local governors/priest with pastoral responsibility/directors
 - Formal interview with all the panel and advisers present. The question regarding Catholic practice must be asked of all candidates.
 - Shared lesson observation of a teacher together with an adviser with observed feedback
 - Shared work analysis of a selection of books together with an adviser
 - Carousel of panels
 - In-tray exercise
 - Roleplay e.g. chairing a meeting
 - Group discussion with all candidates present
- f) Responsibility for organising interview day(s). Confirmation should be made of who will be responsible for all the arrangements. This includes the identity and qualification checks of candidates, booking the venue, arranging lunch, the production of a final timetable and arranging any changes to the school timetable to accommodate liturgical prayer, student meetings or lesson observations.
 - g) Invitation to interview – identity and qualification checks. Confirmation should be made of who will send letters of invitation to interview (see model invitation to interview letter). The timetable and details of any presentations to be prepared should be included. Candidates should also be informed what documentary proof of identity and of qualifications they should bring. It is important that these are checked and photocopied at the beginning of day one.

THE INTERVIEW DAY

Welcome

All the candidates should be welcomed and introduced. If there is an internal candidate this should be made clear at the start of proceedings. It is vital that the panel conduct themselves impartially during the interview process.

Panel briefing

This takes place at the beginning of the day. Attendance of candidates should be confirmed. The panel should be familiar with the timetable. It is at this point the references should be considered. It is important to remind the panel that:

- It is recommended that candidates are kept for the full recruitment process rather than being eliminated.
- Notes should be objective and factual and, should be retained for six months after the interview as they can be called in for scrutiny by a tribunal.
- Candidates' performance should not be discussed until all have been interviewed although the panel will make their individual judgements (and the reasons) after each interview.
- Activities should be graded using proformas:

Grade:	1	2	3	4	5
	lowest	→			highest

Presentations

The presentation proforma should be used by the panel to record their assessment of the candidates.

Formal interview questions

The advisers will help to formulate questions.

- All candidates should be asked the same questions (follow up questions in response to a candidate's response can vary).
- All candidates should have the same number of questions and the same allocated length of time for their interview.
- Questions that could potentially be interpreted as discriminatory are not permitted e.g., direct questions about age, marital status, family (see notes on illegal/improper questions in this document).
- Questions may be asked to clarify points raised in references.
- The proforma for recording responses should be used.
- The 'practising Catholic' question must be asked.

At the end of the interview, the candidate must be asked whether, if offered, the post will be accepted.

The decision

After all interviews are completed, the panel should make their own assessment of each candidate against the criteria for appointment. Ideally, they should do this by transferring evidence from their interview notes on the working sheet.

After this, discussion can be opened and decisions made, taking into account the professional judgements and guidance of the advisers. The panel should come to an agreed decision on each candidate and on which candidates are the strongest. A proposal to appoint a candidate should be made and formally seconded. Ideally the decision should be unanimous but sometimes a vote is necessary. Occasionally the chair has to use their casting vote.

The panel needs to clearly understand that once it has been decided to proceed to a vote no further discussions can take place. If the decision is not to make an appointment, then, in discussion with the Diocesan recruitment adviser, and if time allows, the panel may decide to advertise again. Otherwise, the Diocesan Department for Education must be consulted to advise on interim leadership arrangements.

After the decision

All copies of application forms, supporting statements and references should be collected by the HR adviser. The trust must retain a full set of all relevant paperwork for at least six months.

Arrangements for notifying candidates of the outcome should be confirmed. Notification will usually be via a telephone call, as it is usual to allow candidates to depart following the conclusion of the final interview. Arrangements for the debriefing of unsuccessful candidates should be made. It is important that quality feedback is provided.

NOTES ON QUESTIONS

Illegal/improper questions

Illegal questions usually offend against the range of anti-discrimination legislation which not only promotes equal opportunities but also forbids discrimination. There are nine protected characteristics:

- age
- disability
- gender reassignment
- marriage and civil partnership
- pregnancy and maternity
- race
- religion and belief
- sex
- sexual orientation

It is illegal to ask questions in relation to these, e.g. it is not permissible to ask questions relating to intentions about getting married, starting a family, and coping with small children.

Failure to follow this can lead to a complaint to the Equal Opportunities Commission. The Diocesan Statement on Equal Opportunities in Employment indicates where and how the panel may discriminate between candidates.

The issue of improper questions is not so clear-cut. It is broadly accepted that questions about a teacher's politics or union activities are improper, but while religion and belief is a protected characteristic, the law of the land allows us to ask questions in the area in relation to appointment in a Catholic school.

Practising Catholic question

Applicants must be asked the following question in the final formal interview. This question must be asked by the adviser appointed by the Diocese:

Can you confirm that you are a practising Catholic and that you are able to comply will all of the essential criteria in the job description and with the requirements outlined in the Diocesan Briefing Note and 'Catholic Schools and the Definition of a 'Practising Catholic' – 2009 Diocesan Education Service, Archdiocese of Birmingham on what constitutes a practising Catholic?

POST INTERVIEW TASKS

These are the responsibility of the panel.

The successful candidate's application form, supporting statement and references in the school's personnel files should be retained.

Confirm the appointment in writing, including starting date and salary, should be sent. The person appointed is issued with two copies of the letter of appointment. They should return one copy, signed, to the school. The candidate should retain the second copy for their own records. The person appointed needs to be informed of the arrangements for:

- Enhanced check for Regulated Activity from the Disclosure and Barring Service
- Health clearance

The post will be offered and confirmed in line with Scheme of Delegation. The person appointed is issued with the two copies of the appropriate CES contract. The candidate should sign both copies and return one to you for the school's files. They should retain the second copy for their own records. Please note that a CES contract must be issued.

Communication of the appointment

The chair of the panel needs to communicate the confirmation of the appointment with staff and parents, as soon as possible. A common timeline may need to be agreed with the 'providing' school. The recruitment adviser will advise the chair of the panel on this aspect of the process.

Induction support

The panel has a duty to ensure that the new senior leaders are able to access the induction support provided.

ADVERTISEMENT and APPLICATION PACK CHECKLISTS

Advertisement Checklist

‘The board must advertise any such vacancy or post in such a manner as it considers appropriate unless it has any good reason not to.’¹

The advertisement is the first point of contact with potential applicants. It should be eye-catching, easy to read and engaging. It is the first opportunity to present the school and create an impression that will attract people to apply.

The key to a successful advertisement is to balance brevity with sufficient information about the school to interest and motivate potential applicants. An overlong advertisement does not catch the eye and can be difficult to read. Examples can be obtained from the recruitment adviser.

Advertisement Content

The advertisement should include:

Application Pack Checklist

The pack should have high impact but not contain too many documents. As its purpose is to sell the school, the quality of its contents and presentation are very important in encouraging people to commit to making an application. The information provided should give an accurate picture of the school as well as some feel for its distinctiveness. A personalised letter from the chair and/or headteacher can be used to encourage applications. We would encourage schools to make the application pack available via the school's website.

Essential contents:

- Letter encouraging applications (this will depend on the post being advertised but could be from the chair of directors, the CEO, the chair of governors or the headteacher)
- CES application form (most up to date version)
[see CES website for most recent version of the application form
<https://www.catholiceducation.org.uk/recruitment-process/item/1000042-model-application-forms>
Please note that schools are required to add their details to the Request for your Consent to Process Your Data sections of the application form, consent to obtain references form, recruitment monitoring form and rehabilitation of offenders act form, in order to comply with GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018 requirements. For their job application to be accepted, applicants can only use the CES form provided by the school, with the school details inserted, and cannot download a blank form direct from the CES website.
- Other CES forms <https://www.catholiceducation.org.uk/recruitment-process/item/1000051-model-recruitment-documents-guidance>
 - Application Forms – Notes to Applicants
 - Recruitment Monitoring Form (insert school details as for application form)
 - Consent to Obtain References Form (insert school details as for application form)
 - Disqualification policy (if applicable)
- The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 – Disclosure Form (insert school details as for application form) will be required but this is sent out after shortlisting, only to applicants invited for interview. The completed form is brought to interview in a sealed envelope and only the envelope for the successful candidate is opened, the others are destroyed. If you send the form after shortlisting, you will need to add the name of this document to the list of documents stated as enclosed in the model invitation to interview letter (see section C of this guidance)
- Job description and Person Specification
- Diocesan Briefing Note on Practising Catholic (including the document 'Catholic Schools and the Definition of a 'Practising Catholic' - 2009 Diocesan Education Service, Archdiocese of Birmingham)

- Diocesan Statement on Equal Opportunities
- Safeguarding policy
- Copy of the advert including closing date for applications, name and address of person to whom applications should be sent, statement that applications sent by email will be accepted but will require a real signature on the day of interview, dates for shortlisting and interviews

Optional contents:

1. Brief description of school, its history, location and main strengths
2. Catholic school inspection summary report
3. Ofsted inspection summary report
4. Recent newsletter to parents/parishes

MODEL EQUALITY ACT 2010 REASONABLE ADJUSTMENTS STATEMENT

We understand that some disabled applicants may, due to the nature of their disability, find some parts of the recruitment process challenging. We aim to ensure that all applicants are provided with the same opportunities during the recruitment process and, to that end, we strive to comply with the duties placed upon us to make reasonable adjustments as prescribed by the Equality Act 2010.

Should you have a disability and require a particular adjustment to be made to allow you to fully participate in the recruitment process, please ensure that this is made known to the person identified in the invitation to interview letter when confirming your availability to attend interview as our duty to make reasonable adjustment only applies where we know about, or ought reasonably to know about, your disability (contact details of the relevant person to contact will be provided in your invitation to interview letter).

Below is a non-exhaustive list of some of the types of adjustments that we may make to ensure that the recruitment process is fair to all applicants, if it is reasonable to do so in all the circumstances:

- Modification to documentation – this may include providing documents in large print, in Braille format or on audio CD and/or providing oral instruction on documentation for those applicants with a learning disability;
- Modification of procedures for testing and/or assessment – this may include allowing an applicant to provide oral answers as opposed to written where the applicant has, for example, a disability which affects their manual dexterity. Conversely, an oral test may be completed in writing where the applicant has a disability which affects their speech;
- Provision of a reader for a visually impaired applicant;
- Provision of auxiliary aids – for example, a person to guide a visually impaired applicant around the interview venue;
- Provision of special equipment – for example, adapted keyboards for applicants whose disability may affect their manual dexterity and/or large screen computers for applicants with visual impairments;
- Provision of a sign language interpreter for an applicant with a hearing impairment;
- Where interviews are being conducted by telephone, provision for interview by textphone for an applicant with a hearing impairment;
- Provision of vehicle parking as proximate to the interview venue as reasonably practicable for an applicant with a mobility impairment;
- Modification of interview premises – for example, in order to ensure that an applicant who uses a wheelchair can gain access to the building where the interview is being held, the school/college may consider using ramps, holding interviews on the ground floor (if there is no adequate lift), considering the placement of furniture and rearranging if necessary etc.

MODEL JOB OFFER LETTER

INSERT APPLICANT'S NAME HERE

INSERT APPLICANT'S ADDRESS HERE

INSERT DATE HERE

Dear (INSERT APPLICANT'S NAME)

(INSERT POST TITLE HERE)

On behalf of the board, I am writing to offer you the post of INSERT NAME OF POST at INSERT NAME OF SCHOOL which will be conducted in accordance with the rites, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic faith.

This offer is conditional upon satisfactory completion of Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) checks and health checks. Please complete and return the enclosed forms as directed.

(IF REQUIRED REFERENCES HAVE NOT BEEN RECEIVED, STATE HERE THAT THE OFFER IS CONDITIONAL TO RECEIVING THESE)

(IF THE CANDIDATE FAILED TO PROVIDE ORIGINAL DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE OF QUALIFICATIONS AND EVIDENCE OF RIGHT TO WORK IN THE UK STATE ARRANGEMENTS FOR HIM/HER TO BRING THIS TO SCHOOL TO BE CHECKED)

You have presented yourself at interview and as a practising Catholic who is fully committed to promoting the Catholic ethos of the school and as a person professionally competent to fulfil the position. It is in these terms that the governing body found you a suitable candidate for appointment.

The board, as your employer, will offer you a contract of employment which is a model drawn up by the Catholic Education Service after consultation with Teaching Associations and appropriate local authority bodies. The details of your conditions of service will be supplied to you through the local authority in the near future.

Please sign the second copy of this letter confirming your acceptance of the post and return it in the envelope provided.

Yours sincerely,

Chair of the board

I accept the above position.

Signed.....
