INTRODUCTION

The Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle is the sixth largest Diocese in England and Wales and is situated in the north-east of England. With an area of 3195 square miles, the boundaries are the border with Scotland in the north and the River Tees in the south. The Diocese consists of 152 separate parish communities, grouped together into 19 Partnerships, within five Episcopal Areas. The population of the region is 2,368,000, with an estimated Catholic population of 214,257. There are 156 schools serving 54,000 pupils and their families of which there are 128 primary schools, two infant schools, two junior schools, three first schools, one middle school, and 20 secondary schools. 151 schools are now within the four Catholic Education Trusts.

The Diocese is currently under the leadership of Archbishop Malcolm McMahon, Apostolic Administrator and Archbishop of Liverpool, and Canon Peter Leighton, Diocesan Administrator and Vicar General.

Introducing Vicariates

In the Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle we operate under 'Vicariate' areas of responsibilities. These are umbrella structures that provide space and support for key aspects of the life of the Church.

The Vicariate for Faith & Mission supports people in the Church in areas such as bereavement support, marriage preparation, people's faith development, the celebration, sharing and deepening of people's faith.

The Vicariate for Caritas supports Church projects such as helping the homeless, helping refugees, promoting social justice and supporting environmental awareness.

The Vicariate for Care for the Clergy supports the work of priests, their well-being and their ongoing faith development.

It is not expected that an Administrator would have a strong understanding of the nature of this work. Training and support will be provided in the role.
